DIRECT SELLING INDUSTRY

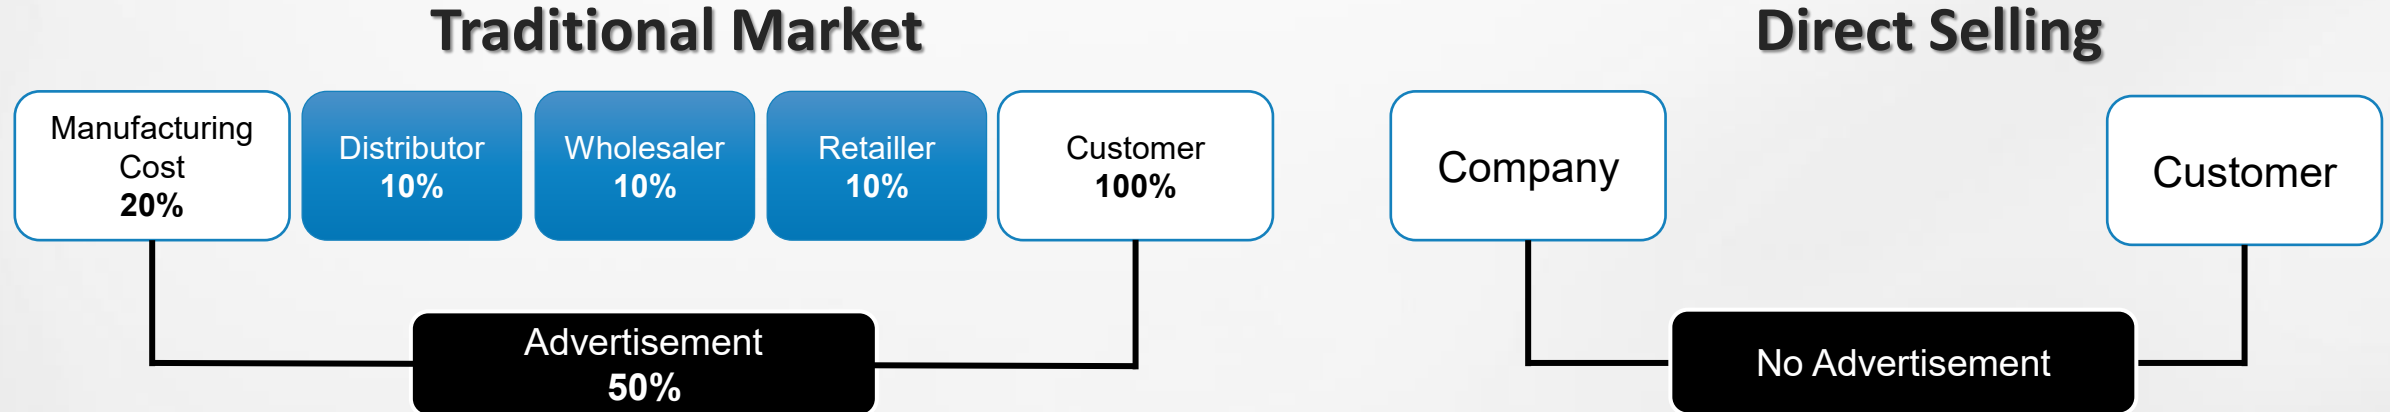

WHAT IS DIRECT SELLING?

Direct Selling is the concept, Where a distributor promotes the deliver it directly to customers. There is no involvement of advertisement in promoting or marketing of products. Any individual can join direct selling and make it a good source of income by promoting and selling the products.

How does Direct Selling Work?

The working Process of traditional business & Direct Selling Business is as described below

In traditional business a huge amount is invested in advertisement of products. On other hand there is no investment on advertisement of products in direct selling business, that amount is distributed in its distributors according to their sales.
